

&

Clark County Chamber of Commerce
"Your County-Wide Business Connection"

Membership Appreciation Night

CCC-News Release: Vancouver Volcanoes—the new professional basketball team representing all of Clark County—will honor Members and their families of Clark County Chamber of Commerce at our last home game of the year on June 24th @ 7:30 p.m. at Skyview High School at no charge.
(A value of $8.00 per ticket)

Free Tickets: CCCC members—please present a copy of this brochure to receive free entrance for yourself and your entire family, as a thank you for your patronage.

Entertaining game: The International Basketball League games have proven to be very entertaining. Volcanoes G.M. Clay Bonds—"I am pleased with the experience that the spectators are having—A Volcano game moves along and fans really like the action; kids enjoy the game because it is action packed and only lasts two hours. After the games, kids come onto the court and shoot baskets and get autographs. Basketball was meant to be—fun, athletic and kept in perspective." The IBL scoring average is currently at 133.6 points.

VANCOUVER VOLCANOES 2005 FINAL HOME GAME

Friday June 24th 7:30 @ Skyview H.S.

Clark County Chamber of Commerce appreciates our member's support. This free pass for you and your family is just a little way we would like to show our appreciation.

*Sincerely,
Izad Khormae, Executive Director
Clark County Chamber of Commerce*