Clark County Chamber of Commerce is pleased to present our Monthly Speaker Series covering key business issues relating to Clark County. Our July presentation will focus on “Public Resources for Clark County Businesses”. We are fortunate to have extensive resources, from market data to consulting services for business growth, easily accessible to small businesses in Clark County. The panel of experts will outline these resources and how they can be leveraged for your business needs.

This is also a wonderful opportunity to stay informed and meet with other Clark County business leaders. The event is complimentary to Clark County Chamber of Commerce members and non-members alike. For more information and to RSVP, please contact your Chamber at 258-1181 or info@ClarkChamber.com.

Panel of Experts:

- Janet Harte concentrates her experience as a former business owner, instructor, and specialist in finance and human resources on small business development topics. She worked through the Washington State University SBDC network for 13 years, achieving business counselor certification when the program first became available in 1997.
- Mike Bacon has been a mall business counselor for the Vancouver chapter of SCORE for the past four years. He spent thirty-five years in various management positions with Willamette and its successor Weyerhaeuser, retiring as a vice-president in 2003. He is also a member of the Oregon Entrepreneurs' Council and is a founding member of the Oregon Angel Fund.
- Mary Buelow is the Assistant Information Services Manager at the Vancouver Community Library. She has over twenty years experience helping people find information on a wide variety of subjects.
